Director's Message

"We remain steadfast in our commitment to empowering lives, fostering inclusive growth, and building a brighter future for all."

Guided by purpose and powered by collaboration, we continue to translate intent into impact—building resilient communities and enabling sustainable change that endures beyond today.

In a year defined by collaboration, resilience, and purposeful action, it gives me immense pleasure to share the Annual Report 2025–26 of the Jubilant Bhartia Foundation (JBF)—a testament to our continued commitment to creating meaningful, scalable, and sustainable social impact.

Since our inception in 2007, JBF has remained steadfast in its mission to design and implement multi-stakeholder solutions that drive lasting change across communities. Through a strong foundation of knowledge sharing, experiential learning, and the promotion of entrepreneurial ecosystems, we continue to enable pathways for inclusive and transformative development. Our approach is deeply rooted in partnerships—with communities, government institutions, and development organizations—ensuring that our interventions are both relevant and impactful. Aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), we strive to contribute meaningfully toward a future that is equitable, resilient, and environmentally sustainable.

Over the past year, we strengthened our focus across our core pillars—Health, Education, Livelihood, and Rural Development—with particular emphasis on the communities surrounding our manufacturing locations. Our education initiatives impacted over one lakh beneficiaries, fostering learning, innovation, and opportunity through programmes such as Khushiyon Ki Pathshala, Muskaan Fellowship, and Edulab. In healthcare, we reached more than 11 lakh individuals, delivering accessible and quality services through JUBiCARE tele-clinics, mobile health units, and community-based awareness initiatives. Our livelihood programmes further enabled economic empowerment and self-reliance by creating sustainable income opportunities.

A significant milestone this year has been the launch of Bharat Impact, a dedicated platform by JBF aimed at nurturing emerging social entrepreneurs and accelerating innovation-led solutions to address India's evolving development challenges. We also take pride in continuing our association with the Schwab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship, recognizing changemakers who are redefining social impact across the country.

As we reflect on the year gone by, I am deeply inspired by the resilience, determination, and aspirations of the communities we serve. This journey is truly collective, and I extend my sincere appreciation to our partners, stakeholders, and dedicated teams whose unwavering commitment makes our work possible. As we move forward, we remain resolute in our vision to empower lives, foster inclusive growth, and build a more sustainable and equitable future for all.

The Management is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

5. Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

A. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conduct in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

i) Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery international omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

ii) Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

iii) Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

iv) Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainly exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, further events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

v) Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transaction and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

C. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
